ANOTHER department has been added to this store. 'Tis the Traveling Goods department. There is great demand for a first-class line of Trunks, Bags and Suit Cases, and The Economist is now in a position to supply this demand. Every little while the patrons of this popular store—and that means seven-tenths of the buying public—would request us to put in a line of Traveling Goods, saying it was difficult to obtain in Albuquerque the right goods at the right prices.

So, then, as we have the interest of the public at heart, and have ample room in our big, bright store, we've taken the advice of our friends and installed this which will prove of great benefit to Albuquerqueans, for our aim shall always be to give THE BEST GOODS POSSIBLE TO OBTAIN FOR THE MONEY. To celebrate the event of inaugurating this new department, we shall allow

TRAVELING GOODS DEPARTMENT

A DISCOUNT OF 20 PER CENT

on every Trunk, Bag, or Suit Case purchased here this week. We will also print your name

FREE OF CHARGE

on every Trunk, Bag or Suit Case that you may select.

A word as to the quality of our Trunks: It took us quite a while to locate the trunk manufacturer whose wares appealed to us sufficiently to induce us to give him a "show." And now we're quite positive that we handle the STOUTEST, STRONGEST, BEST LOOKING Trunks in the land. Our trunks don't object to crowding—their good nature is limited only by their capacity. Our trunks are built for service and hard wear, first of all. But we've happily combined good looks with strength, too. And they're roomy—always ready for the sure-to-be-overlooked last things.

And 'tis the same with our Bags and Suit Cases—they're made to withstand the wear and tear of a long journey, or several journeys. For a reliable Trunk, Bag or Suit Case, you must patronize The Economist. REMEMBER THIS WEEK'S SPECIAL OFFER.

Final Clearance of Wash Goods

In this land of sunshine you have fully three more months before you in which to wear wash dresses, and at the prices we are selling our wash goods, you cannot afford to overlook these offerings. We want to sell every yard of wash goods in the store. ## DISAPPOINTED IN LOVE SHE KILLED HERSELF

Rash Act of Miss Eliza Taylor, at Hanover, Grant County.

DEATH RESULTED FROM POISON

Eliza Taylor, aged 19, a young and beautiful woman of Hanover, Grant county, committed suicide last Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock by swallowing a teaspoonful of strychnine, says the Silver City Enterprise. After she committed the rash act, which was done in her room in the Taylor home, near Hanover, she walked into the room where her father and mother were seated and coolly informed them of what she had done. She had no sooner finished speaking than she fell in convulsions to the floor, caused by the effect of the powerful and deadly drug. Her parents went to her assistance and her brother was sent post haste on a horse for a doctor. The lad rode to Santa Rita, but was unable to get a physician, and by the time he had returned, which was not over twenty minutes, his sister had passed to the Great Beyond, that place where "the wrongs of time are redressed, justice is explained and the irony of fate is refuted." The cause of the girl's awful act was a mystery to the parents until shortly before dying she explained to them that it was the result of an unfortunate love affair, and that life no longer held any charms for her, and that in fact she wanted to die and end it all.

The affair is a very pathetic one, owing to the circumstances surrounding the case. The young lady was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Taylor of Hanover, and for the last six years, or during their residence in that vicinity, having come here about six years ago from Texas. He was also in charge of a gang of men at work on the Pinos Altos narrow gauge line below town, up to within five weeks when he resigned his position to secure work nearer home, where he could be with his family. The victim of the tragedy is spoken of by all who knew here, as a woman of unusual beauty, being tall and graceful, of stately carriage, regular features and raven black hair and eyes of great beauty. On the morning of the tragedy she mailed a bunch of letters on the Pterro train, going out to the track, and handed them to one of the train crew as the train sped by. She turned and went back to the house, going straight to her room where she poured out the deadly drug and swallowed it. Then she walked into the adjoining room and told her parents of what she had done, as stated above.

Funeral services over the remains were held from the family residence Thursday, with interment in the Silver City cemetery east of town. The services at the cemetery were in charge of Rev. J. G. Harshaw, of the Methodist church.

Deceased is survived by her parents and six brothers, the oldest of whom is about 25 and the youngest 3 years. The older boys, Milam and Joe, are well known throughout this section of the country.

HAY FEVER FOR 27 YEARS.

Well Known New England Woman Cured of Hay Fever—Cure Was Lasting.

The thousands of discouraged people who dread the approach of summer because they have hay fever and cannot find any relief from it, will read with interest and gratitude the following statement from Helen S. Williams, of Mansfield, Mass.:

"For 27 years, from the month of August until heavy frost, I have been afflicted with hay fever, growing worse and worse each year, until of late years I was unable to attend to my work during that period.

"Last summer I fortunately gave Hyomei a trial, and I am happy to say that it entirely cured me, and I have had no occurrence of the disease since."

Breathe the germ killing and healing balsams of Hyomei and get rid of your hay fever.

The complete outfit costs but $1, extra bottles, 50 cents. J. H. O'Reilly & Co. agree to refund the money to any hay fever sufferer who uses Hyomei without benefit.

Launching a new department at The Economist this week. Read the ad on page six.

The Only Way.

There is no way to maintain the health and strength of mind and body except by nourishment. There is no way to nourish except through the stomach. The stomach must be kept healthy, pure and sweet or the strength will let down and disease will set up. No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, sour risings, rifting, indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles that are curable are quickly cured by the use of Kodol Dyepepsia Cure. Kodol digests what you eat and strengthens the whole digestive apparatus.
